Dear Parents,

Have you ever thought, "Why should I buy any photographs, they'll be in the yearbook and the photographer is paid by the school?" Yes, the photographs will be in the yearbook, but I am not paid by the school or the Choir Program. My only pay is when you and other parents order 8x10s and/ or 10x20s of the various groups I photograph for your school. I also voluntarily provide images for the yearbook at no charge.

You have an opportunity to buy prints from me that are much higher quality, much larger and easier to see your student than what you see in the yearbook.

All of students have worked very hard to be able to sing and perform as well as they do, and your student should be remembered for what they have accomplished. The best way to do that is to order a high quality photograph of their group so that they will be able to show it to future generations. Kodak says that the prints that you get from me, with proper care, will last for many generations and very likely over 100 years. Your student's children and grandchildren will have the opportunity to see them in the photographs that you purchase.

I am a small business owner, a Professional Photographer and a historian. I capture a slice of time in your student's life and preserve it for you and your student. My goal is to create portraits and photographs that they will be proud to show others and will be enjoyed for many generations in the future. However, I can not afford to continue offering this service to the Choir Program and your school without adequate sales.

Please consider ordering photographs for you and your student. I want to continue providing this service to your school, but without your help I can't.

Thank you,
